MINISTERS' TRIBUTE TO THE LATE DR. J. G. BUTLER.

Memorial Meeting Held at Luther Place Church-Addresses by Prominent Theologians.

The memory of the late Rev. Dr. John George Butler, for thirty-seven years pastor of the Luther Place Memorial Church and for over half a century identified with the religious life of the National Capital, was honored last night at a meeting in the Luther Place Church. The list of speakers included Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church; Dr. M. H. Valentine, editor of the Lutheran | Parker. Observer of Philadelphia, and Rev. Dr. J. T. Clark, instructor in theology at Howard University.

Rev. Dr. Radcliffe spoke of "Dr. Butler as a Fellow Minister," and after paying high tribute to his work in Washington and throughout the country he said: "I love a man who keeps his banner aloft, pushes it to the front and proclaims the greatest of its meaning." He declared that Dr. Butler was a Lutheran first and last, but he was in every sense of the word a fellow-preacher.
